HARDING WILL BE ELECTED PRESIDENT NEXT TUESDAY BY OVERWHELMING MAJORITY

Forecast of Correspondent Who Predicted Defeat of Hughes in 1916.

399 ELECTORAL VOTES

To Only 102 For Cox, is Conclusion Based on Confidential Information From Reliable Sources in the Ser-vical States of the Union.

By David Lawrence.
Copyright 1920 by The Courier.
(This is the second of a series of three articles forecasting the trend of next Tuesday's electoral vote for president and analyzing the situation in all the pivotal states of the Union for the first time in the last two months.)

WASHINGTON, Oct. 30.—Two methods of calculation may be used in attempting to forecast an election. One is a table of figures which is more or less guess-work for nobody knows exactly how the millions of voters throughout the Union will vote or a table containing the irreducible minimum of electoral votes by which Harding or Cox will be elected. Oversight it is possible to make such a study of the various states as to convince the investigator that a combination of certain states will insure victory or defeat as the case may be.
Four years ago, this correspondent presented a table showing the irre-ducible minimum of votes for Wilson.
Everything else was conceded to Hughes for the sake of the calculation and it was the object of the table to show that Wilson had just enough to win.

Now irrespective of what the final official table will show on the day after election, curiosity for the moment centers on the certainty or uncertainty of electing Cox or Harding.
Who, in other words, will be the next President?

The maximum of Democratic expectations, hopes and possibilities is represented in the table of 295 electoral votes for Cox and 246 for Harding. A table based on this claim is a picture of Democratic optimism.
Should that table break down by 30 electoral votes, Governor Cox will have lost the election.

Now out of the total of 531 electoral votes, a majority of 266 is necessary to elect a President. So the figure 286 is kept in mind as the irreducible minimum in examining the foregoing table of Democratic aspirations.
Should 30 votes be subtracted from the total of 295, the Democratic nominee would have 265 votes and his opponent with all the rest or 266 which would elect Harding.

The big question is, therefore, is the Democratic table bullet-proof? Can 30 votes be subtracted from it with any degree of certainty? The writer finds no difficulty in presenting any of three combinations of states sure to go Republican, which total more than 30 votes and which will break down the Democratic chance of victory.
These states, states are Ohio 24, New Jersey 14, and California 12, or a total of 50. If that combination were not convincing, then a combination of Ohio 24, New Jersey 14, or a total of 38 would elect Harding. Even if Ohio were conceded to the Democrats for the purpose of this calculation, the combination of California 12 and New Jersey 14 and Connecticut 7 or a total of 33 votes for Harding would upset the Democratic total of 295.

The conclusion to which this correspondent has come after several weeks of personal investigation is that the drift, if any, toward Cox in the last 10 days is not sufficient to overcome at the last minute the two-year start in organization and campaigning which the Republicans have had. Consequently the writer is confident on Page Four.

ANOTHER REHEARSAL

In Preparation for Presentation of the Legion's Big Show.

Another rehearsal of the "Legion Polka" will be held in the assembly room of the Carnegie Library at 8 o'clock this evening under the direction of John R. Blawie, Jr., Miss Genevieve Solomon. At the rehearsal a week ago 12 young ladies and 34 young men reported.

It is hoped all the persons who have assisted their willingness to take part will be on hand this evening and that many others will present themselves to enroll as members of the cast of the show. The production of the greatest home talent production ever staged in Connellsville.

It is desired to secure at least 90 people in order to properly present the many new and novel features of the show. The invitation to both young ladies and young men to take part is still open.

FINAL BIG RALLY OF THE CAMPAIGN IN UNIONTOWN TONIGHT

Congressman Hubert P. Gardner of Maine the speaker; Congressman Kendall in Perry Township.
What will be the final big rally of the campaign by Republicans will be tonight at the West End theatre, Uniontown, when Congressman Hubert P. Gardner of Maine will speak.
Delegations from all parts of the county are expected. The meeting will begin at 8 o'clock.

Seven rallies were held in the county last night, among them being one at Perryopolis and another at Star Junction at which the same speakers appeared. Large crowds were attracted to both places.

At Perryopolis Congressman S. A.
Kendall, Mrs. E. H. Adams and Miss Lena Craft were the principal speakers. The same trio spoke at Star Junction. The league was discussed by Mrs. Adams and Mr. Kendall. The latter told his audience that "Republican victory was assured" that he really had to smile at some of the "mottoes" of Democrats in attempting to win away good G. O. P. votes.

"They'll have to get a lot more in their platform than they've got there now," he said. "And they've not done it so far. So talk about Democratic victory is a little amusing. For the voters are looking to that party which admits, as do the Republicans, that there is a problem, that there is a problem, and that there must be a solution. Only the Republicans, this far at least, have recognized these facts, it appears."

Miss Craft discussed the Republican platform and the system and charged that the public will never accept seriously any party unless it has a solution of national problems. She rapped the Democratic party for "evangelism, abuse, deceit and misrepresentation." She lauded the war record of Cox and the record of the party which had been a true friend to the soldiers.

SUIT OVER MINING RIGHTS

W. D. McGinnis and Wife Defendants As Action by Silgo Coal Company.

The Silgo Coal company has filed an action in Uniontown against William D.
McGinnis of Connellsville to recover $4,000. According to the statement the plaintiff on June 29, 1917, purchased parcels of land in the McGinnis administration of the McGinnis estate.
The McGinnis estate, from the defendants, the deed embracing mining rights.

In January, 1919, the H. C. Frick Coke company secured an injunction restraining the removal of the coal, it being proved that the Frick company was the owner of the coal at the time of the sale to the Silgo company. Between March 2, 1918, and October 25, 1919, the Silgo company paid the Frick company $4,000, which amount it seeks to recover from the defendants in the action.

Parade Serves Purpose.
The Halloween parade served in a large measure to hold down annoyance of citizens in the suburban districts by boys inclined to rowdiness.
Although there has been some lawlessness going on early this week, there was no unusual amount of it last night.

special service Sunday night when the

WEATHER FAILS TO MAR ANNUAL MUMMERS' PARADE

Last Night's Carnival Declared
eral Years.

In spite of the cold weather, Connellsville citizens turned out last night, and joined by hundreds from out of town, revelled in a Halloween celebration that even exceeded the standard set by the finest several years ago when they began to make the occasional mean something in this community.

Thousands turned out and paraded the streets for hours, transforming the downtown section into a riot of color, noise and merriment.

The parade, as scheduled, moved off promptly at 7 o'clock. It took in every section of the route announced previously. Mummies dressed in all imaginable costumes took their places in line and thoroughly enjoyed the merriment joining the throng of merrymakers in the streets after the disbanding of the procession.

The school children turned out in large numbers. Watched over throughout the march by their teachers, members of the fire department and the Boy Scouts, the youngsters were well taken care of and did not meet with a single accident.

There was enough music in the line of march to live things up, and when the bands didn't play the mummies kept things moving. The jubilee was complete. There was a mixing of the crowd in a friendly spirit, which has been often displayed, dominated in Connellsville. The orderliness of the crowd was more pronounced than in other years.

The rear of the parade was brought up by a large string of floats. Several business concerns had their trucks in line.

Scottdale mummies were here in large numbers, also the Scottdale Military band and the Scottdale Drum corps.

A banner carried by the school children of the Third ward made an appeal for the library. It read: "Please hear our cries; support the library! Books make us wise." On the reverse side was some good advice, which read:
"If you don't want a 'triumph,' Mr.
Politician, be fair with the 'winnins.'"

Every school building had a banner in the procession. Some of them dealt with patriotism, others with the first vote women will cast next Tuesday.

The parade disbanded at the corner of Fairview avenue and South Pittsburg street. Other persons retraced their steps and the mummies and the youngsters thronged the Cameron school where lollypops, doughnuts and apples were distributed to all in costume.

Only a part of the prizes were claimed at the Sweeney electric store.
Other prizes were given to the children at the fire department on the West Side. Those listed today were:

Best consumed social club, Glad-U-Kum club, $15 in cash; 18 members

Neither Cox Nor Sterling Can Win

There are a number of reasons, each of which is sufficient and controlling, why Governor Cox as candidate for President, and Bruce P. Sterling as candidate for Congress, should not and cannot be elected at next Tuesday's election.

In the first place, this is a Republican year. Tiring of almost eight years of autocratic domination and control of the government by one man; weighted down under the burden of an exco-rdative and sectional system of taxation as the price they must pay for unbridled extravagance in administration, and confronted with the certainty, that in event of the success of the national Democratic ticket, the United States will be committed to foreign obligations that will increase taxation and deprive us of our sovereignty and independence as a nation, the people of the land have determined those evils shall and will be remedied or avoided by the election of a Republican President and a Congress that will enable him to carry sound policies and plans for rehabilitation, restoration and reconstruction into effect.

The enfranchisement of women, accomplished through the aid of the Republican party, has brought a most potent factor into the political life of the nation, almost doubling the number of voters whose influence for good has yet to be measured, but it is certain to be felt. Of these new voters fully 80 per cent, like the "first voters" of the opposite sex, have the conviction that by voting the Republican ticket they will not only cast their first vote for the winning ticket, but in doing so they will have the opportunity they have been seeking to assist in firmly re-establishing the virile Americanism of our fathers and routing out the dangerous internationalism of present day theorists.

The Democratic platform and the campaign to elect Governor Cox President and Bruce Sterling a member of Congress, are based upon an issue dictated by President Wilson which means the perpetuation of the harmful Wilsonian policies, theories and principles, and our unwilling membership in and responsibility to an alien super-state which does not recognize God as the Supreme Ruler, but is to be governed and controlled by the astute and grasping politicians and diplomats of Europe and Asia—some atheistic, some deistic, some Shintoists and many non-Christian in their beliefs.

To each of these propositions Cox and Sterling have given their ready and willing assent. To each Republican will say "NO," as expressed by a Straight Republican Vote.

Wilson, Cox and Sterling have declared that Article X of the league covenant must be accepted without reservation or amendment. From their own reading of the text—not a Democratic "interpretation" thereof—Mothers of America know that this means they must hold their boys in readiness to fight and die in every quarter of the globe whenever the League of Nations may order the "territorial integrity" or the "political independence" of a member nation to be preserved. Against such a surrender of constitutional prerogatives, and those who advocate it, the Mothers of America will protest by their votes.

In his record and activities as a former member of Congress Bruce Sterling is the embodiment of Wilsonism in all its forms, practices, theories and beliefs. He and Governor Cox are absolutely "at one" on this having, at the behest of their Master in the White House, placed the Godless Covenant of the League of Nations above the Constitution of the United States, brought forth as the Charter of our Liberties, in the prayers of the devout, sincere and righteous Founders of the Republic.

From the very beginning Sterling's campaign managers refused to recognize, and still refuse to recognize, that frank and candid statements of claims, fair treatment of the opposition, avoidance of deception, sharp practices and attempts to mislead, bewilder or hoodwink people are not the methods by which to invite or to retain the confidence and support of voters.

The thin disguise of the so-called "non-partisan" Women Voters' League was quickly torn aside and the real purpose to spread Democratic propaganda was exposed in all its crudity.
But the boldest, most preposterous and ludicrous of all the attempts made to secure votes under false pretense was the house-to-house canvass of Democratic women who, not being well informed, honestly and sincerely sought to make other women believe Sterling has always been and still is an earnest, conscientious advocate of prohibition, and the stern and uncompromising foe of the liquor industry, both legal and illegal in its operations.

The presentation of the facts of Sterling's long association with and supporter and political and financial beneficiary of the liquor interests, and dependent upon them for votes and other substantial aid and support in his present campaign, and his refusal to pledge his influence and vote, if elected to Congress, to resist an amendment of the Volstead Act along less stringent lines, have deprived him of every right to claim the support or vote of any man or woman who is or has been a sincere well-wisher for the success of national prohibition.

Federal Prohibition Commissioner Kramer, himself an appointee of the Democratic administration, has declared that "the election of a 'wet' Congress, and the revision of the Volstead Act to permit the manufacture of light wines and beer, means the annulment of prohibition." Yet Sterling dodged an opportunity to pledge himself against revision; Kendall unequivocally declared himself.

Notwithstanding all the appointees of the Internal Revenue Department in the 23rd District were named by Sterling, or with his consent and advice, from C. Gregg Lewellyn, collector, down to Frank McLaughlin, ex-brewery agent and constable extraordinary, as prohibition enforcement officer for this territory, Sterling seeks to evade responsibility for the derelictions of his appointees under whose jurisdiction there has occurred the most shameless travesty on law enforcement known in the history of the state of Pennsylvania.

Through his legal partnership effort is even now being made to set aside the Brooke Law which, if done, would leave to the Bureau of Internal Revenue the whole matter of liquor law enforcement. And this bureau, as it has been administered, is nothing more than a "political dynasty" of which Sterling, by virtue of his chairmanship of the Democratic State Committee, is the head, and Collector Lewellyn, and John H. Wilson, Democratic candidate for Congress in the 22nd district, members.

Having a fuller knowledge now than at any previous time of the things enumerated, and a familiarity with others known but not necessary to be mentioned, and realizing that every obligation to Sterling the Republican party or any member of it might have at any time incurred has been more than discharged, Republicans, both men and women, will resist efforts to induce them to split their tickets or give complimentary votes, on Tuesday, making instead a single cross-mark in the first column, thus:

REPUBLICAN.....X

Women who have registered as Independents, Non-Partisan, or as Democrats, and who are unwilling to contribute by their voice or vote to an annulment of the 18th Amendment, by a liberalization of the Volstead Act, which Sterling is pledged to the liquor interests to do, will give expression to their sentiments by marking one of the marks on their ballots thus:

Samuel A. Kendall.....Republican.....X
Prohibition.....X

CHAIRMAN CROW'S FORECAST OF 750,000 MAJORITY STANDS

Special to The Courier.

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 30.—As final pre-election reports are coming into the headquarters of the Republican State committee in this city from all of the state's counties, State Chairman William H. Crow is well satisfied that his prediction of a majority of 750,000 for Harding and Coolidge in next Tuesday's election will stand.

Final touches are being put on the campaign in the various counties and indifference of the Republican workers of a few weeks ago in several counties has developed into real enthusiasm. While all are certain that the Republican ticket will carry the state by the largest majority ever given to a Republican presidential candidate, the county organizations have become inspired with an effort to put Pennsylvania first in the list of Republican states.

It reports which are daily coming into state headquarters are covered some real turnovers may be expected next Tuesday. President Wilson carried 21 counties of the state four years ago, and the Democrats in 1912 Congressional fight won 13 counties in 1918. It now looks as if Pennsylvania's Democratic counties this year could be counted on the fingers of one hand.

There is not the slightest bit of danger to any part of the national or state ticket as far as Pennsylvania is concerned. The majority which Senator Penrose won recently was the largest ever given to him by the voters of the state. There is no question about the election of either Charles A.
Snyder for state treasurer or Samuel S. Lewis for auditor general. William J. Burke, Mahlon M. Garland, Joseph McLaughlin and Anderson R. Vatterson—congressional candidates—will sweep their opponents from their feet.

State leaders here look with the greatest optimism upon the opportunity of electing a solid Republican representation to Congress. A careful survey has been made of each of the 32 Congressional districts. In a few of them there are spirited and somewhat bitter fights being waged upon the merits of the Republican county chairmen, those in charge of the state headquarters believe that the Republican nominees will win in all of them.

It is certain that a Democratic candidate will not be elected from a single district with the exception of the 1st Republican, and there are but six districts which are now represented by Democrats. The Lackawanna and Luzerne county districts, the 10th and 11th, respectively, will give the Republican candidates good majorities.
The Luzerne-Western district has long been counted in the "safe" column.

There are three districts which many insist are "doubtful," but which the Republican chairmen claim will go Republican. In these districts, the 13th, 16th and 28th, voters have been called by factional differences. From districts, the Republican candidates, aided by the women organized under the Republican banner, have made such inroads upon the Democrats in the campaign, that it would not be at all surprising if the Democrats were defeated there.

According to reports received from Reading and Allentown, the Berks-Lehigh district shows decided signs of "going Republican" for the first time in many years. In the cities of this district, the registration is largely Republican and the Democrats were reportedly factional differences. From Snyder and Columbia come reports of a great change in sentiment during the last fortnight toward the Republican ticket, which, the county leaders believe, will insure the election of the entire Republican ticket in the Columbia-Allentown-Northampton-Snyder district. Reports from Hazleton and Stroudsburg indicate that the old Mitchell Palmer district, the 26th, which the Democrats carried two years ago by over 2,000, will repudiate the Democratic party.

IOWA MINISTER IS VICTIM OF FIENDISH PLOT

Rev. Dr. Cleveland Slugged, Soaked With Oil, Put in Truck, Set Afire.

ROLLS OUT AND ESCAPES COUNTY BY CLOSE 3,000

By Associated Press.
COUNCIL BLUFFS, Ia., Oct. 30.— Lured to a lonely part of the city by a false telephone call, Rev. Dr. Cleveland, pastor of the Dodge Memorial church and prominent in civic affairs, last night was slugged, bound and surged by four thugs who threw him into an automobile truck, soaked his clothes in oil and then set fire to the car.

The minister saved himself from being burned to death by rolling out of the truck. Two boys who were attacked by the blazing car found Dr.
Cleveland. He was taken to a local hospital where it was reported today his condition is critical.

Dr. Cleveland said he was certain the motive for the attack on him was revenge for steps taken by him to suppress a wave of crime in the vicinity of the city in which his church located.

W. E. HERD RESIGNS

Leaves Railroad Company to Become a Mine Manager.

William E. Herd, ticket agent at the Pennsylvania depot here has resigned, effective today, to become mine manager of the Herd-Lust Coal company at Holly, W. Va., and will leave for that place tomorrow night.
He will probably have his family with him. Herd has been employed by the Pennsylvania for

34 SENATORS AND 435 CONGRESSMEN TO BE ELECTED

Governors Will Be Chosen in 34 States at Voting on Tuesday.

MANY WOMEN CANDIDATES

By Associated Press.
NEW YORK, Oct. 30.—The national and state elections to be held next Tuesday, November 2, will be notable for the number of women nominees and the large number of parties which have nominated candidates.

Six parties have national tickets for President and Vice President, though no more in all the states. These tickets are Republican, Democratic, Socialist, Prohibition, Farmer-Labor and Single Tax. About 10 other parties have candidates either for state tickets or for representatives in Congress, bringing the total of all parties in the field nearly to a score.

In the Presidential election there will be chosen 531 members of the electoral college of which 256 will be necessary to the election of a candidate as President. In the last election President Wilson had 277.

The present membership of the United States Senate is 96, composed of 47 Democrats, 45 Republicans and one Progressive. This year 34 states are to elect 34 Senators, the terms of 32 members of that body expiring on March 3, 1921, while the other two are being selected to fill unexpired terms in March 4, 1921. Of the 32 Senators whose terms expire next March, 17 are Democrats and 15 Republicans. The two additional vacancies were caused by the deaths of Senators Bankhead of Alabama and Martin of Virginia, both Democrats. One Senator is to be chosen in each of the 35 states except in Alabama, which elects two.

The only states which do not elect Senators are Delaware, Maine, Massachusetts, Michigan, Minnesota, Mississippi, Montana, Nebraska, New Jersey, New Mexico, Rhode Island, Tennessee, Texas, West Virginia and Wyoming.

Women candidates for the Senate have been nominated in six states, by the Prohibitionists in Indiana, New York and Pennsylvania; by Socialists in California; by the Farmer-Labor Party in New York and Massachusetts; and by Independents in Nevada.

Socialists have candidates for the Senate in 11 states: Alabama, California, Illinois, Indiana, New Hampshire, New York, Oklahoma, Oregon, Pennsylvania and Washington.

At least eight other parties have nominated candidates for Senator in one or more states. These are Progressive, Socialist, Labor, Single Tax, Independent, Industrial Labor, Labor, Independent Republican and Non-Partisan League.

The total membership, 435, of the next House of Representatives is to be elected. Of this number, 218 is necessary for a majority. The present membership is, Democrats, 190; Republicans, 232; Independent Republicans, 2; Independent, 1; Prohibitionists, 1; woman, 8. Women have been nominated as candidates for representatives in at least 11 states including Alabama, California, Idaho, Iowa, Michigan, Nebraska, Massachusetts, New York, Oklahoma, Oregon and Missouri.

Governors are to be elected in 34 states while elections for lesser state offices will be held in seven others. Those electing governors are: Arizona, Arkansas, Colorado, Connecticut, Delaware, Florida, Georgia, Idaho, Illinois, Indiana, Iowa, Kansas, Massachusetts, Minnesota, Missouri, Montana, Nebraska, New Hampshire, New Mexico, New York, North Carolina, North Dakota, Ohio, Rhode Island, South Carolina, South Dakota, Tennessee, Texas, Utah, Vermont, Washington, West Virginia and Wisconsin. Only Democratic and Republican parties have been nominated in all these states except Georgia and South Carolina, in which no Republicans are running.

The Socialist party has candidates for governor in 18 states: Delaware, Florida, Illinois, Indiana, Iowa, Kansas, Massachusetts, Oregon, Pennsylvania, Rhode Island, Wisconsin and Texas.

Prohibitionists nominated governors for seven states: Illinois, Indiana, Missouri, Nebraska, New York, Pennsylvania and Vermont. The Socialist Labor party has candidates for governor in seven states: the Farmer-Labor party in one and the Single Tax party in two, Illinois and Pennsylvania.

Many women have been nominated for office on state tickets.

CHALKEY WIMLER TO MEET TOMMY RYAN, BANTAM, IN TEN-ROUND CLASSIC HERE

Is to Be Feature of Next Payette A. C. Show on November 15.

BOTH NATIONALLY KNOWN

With the signing of Chalkey Wimler, formerly of this city now of Fairhaven, and Tommy Ryan of McKeesport to meet in the star bout of 10 rounds at the next boxing show of the Fayette A. C. one of the best cards ever arranged to take place here was completed yesterday. The boys are to meet at Slavish hall on Monday evening, November 15. They have agreed to weigh in at 110 pounds at a clock on the afternoon of the contest. For safety reasons both boys being at the reputed weight were posted yesterday by Sheila Hauser.

Wimler is considered one of the best little men in the game today. Chalkey is in great demand throughout Ohio and the other middle western states. In Detroit he has boxed many feature bouts. Last spring Wimler and Ryan met at McKeesport. Duke Barry, the matchmaker for the local club was so impressed with the hard and fast hand of Wimler that they displayed that he would be the opportunity presented itself he would book him for a show here.

Ryan, who has come along with such rapid strides in all his recent contests has made long history, where he has shown he has had the "knuckle" vision, the recognized light champion of this country when Bud News, Liber, the champion of Canada was cutting such a wide stride on his visit to the states last winter and during the spring it was little Tommy who checked his winning streak.

Not content with such a stellar attraction Barry is working on a set of preliminaries that will be on the same standard as the feature encounter. Monday evening was decided upon to hold this bout through the efforts of a number of business men who unfortunately cannot attend the Saturday evening contest.

Johnny Pol, who the Dawson fought, weight added until he was able to fight at 110 pounds. He was defeated by him when he was in a four round fight. The Republic, strong boy was selected to check the winning streak of Duke Barry's protégé but he was with the surprise of his life. In the second round Johnny dropped, his opponent repeating the blow again in the third and twice in the fourth.

Next Saturday Connellville will offer the scalp of the McKeesport fighter. It is just one hard game after another from now until the end of the season.

The team will play at Wilkesburg on November 11, the game being set for a morning hour. In the afternoon the team will be guests at the Pittsburgh A. J. football contest at Forbes field.

It goes several hundred of football fans as well as a large number of the citizens and black bear a happy feeling when they see the team this morning and enough cheer in the city to make today an ideal one for the premier game of the season.

Hume made an 80-yard run in the third quarter, and a 40-yard run in the fourth quarter. The game was determined by a 100-yard run in the last quarter, and a 40-yard run in the fourth quarter.

Peabody high school has its performance at the state of the season. It is making it appear that the 200 yard race over Connellville was a hard game. Playing the fourth high in Pittsburgh yesterday. The Peabody team ran up a score of 100-0. It is considered a record for a school in the term.

Unknown high school had an easy victory in Charleston today. Although Charleston defeated the Peabody, the team here had been without a "catch" to this time.

ONLY A SCRATCH HIT

Walter Morris, president of two Texas leagues tells the story of a game in the West Texas league.

The winning run was on the bases when Manager Tom Gallagher of Ranger came to bat in the ninth. Manager Pop Box Smith of the opposing team ordered the pitcher to walk Gallagher a mighty hit. The pitcher shot a fast one in the groove just shoulder high. Gallagher and the ball disappeared over center field fence into a corn patch.

"Whaddya mean scratch hit?" they say. "Well, Smith."

"That was a scratch hit, didn't it?" answered the pitcher.

"Scratch? Scratch me over Whaddya mean a scratch hit?" Gallagher asked. "It was on the verge of a home run."

"I mean it was a scratch hit," he said. "It was a scratch hit. That is only a scratch hit. That is only a scratch hit. That is only a scratch hit."
